Spirit, Enthusiasm, Inspiration . . .

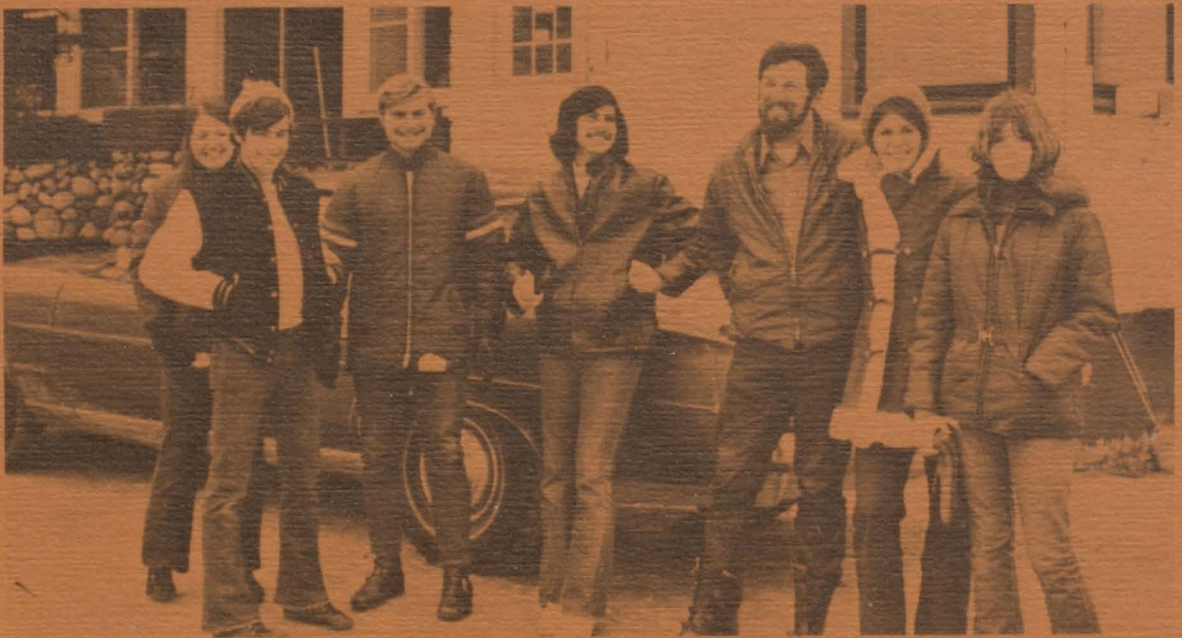

Spirit, enthusiasm, inspiration and dedication—these are all exceptional qualities. They are not only self-rewarding to the person who possesses these traits, but can be inspirational to the people who associate with him. Often it is difficult to select a particular person from a crowd, as all crowds are made up of individual personalities. There is one man, though, that comes to mind as having certain characteristics that seem to out-shine others. When you start with spirit, add enthusiasm, then inspiration and dedication, the sum total equals Mr. Walker Archer.

FACULTY

Administration Offers Help

The secretaries play an important part in our school. Besides delivering overhead projectors and film projectors, Mrs. Carol Eber (opposite right) works the master switchboard answering the important phone calls that come in. If you've wondered who keeps all the class' and clubs accounts straight, Mrs. Lucille Chartier (lower right) says "I do!" Miss Pat Daly (left) formerly served as secretary to Mr. Parsons and took care of all attendance procedures. Below we find Mr. Cotton doing his favorite activity which is giving the morning announcements.

Practical Aids

The teaching of Business subjects at the high school level helps to prepare students for not only office endeavors but also helps them to acquire basic skills in an area that is beneficial to all walks of life. Miss Sondra Cawrse, right, explains to her class that once the income has met the costs and expenses there isn't much left. After checking his Typing I's test papers, Mr. Ellery Horning wonders if it's really worth it in the lower right. Mrs. Florence Joachim, lower left, can't believe that these scribbles are supposed to be shorthand.

T Squares, Saws, Drills

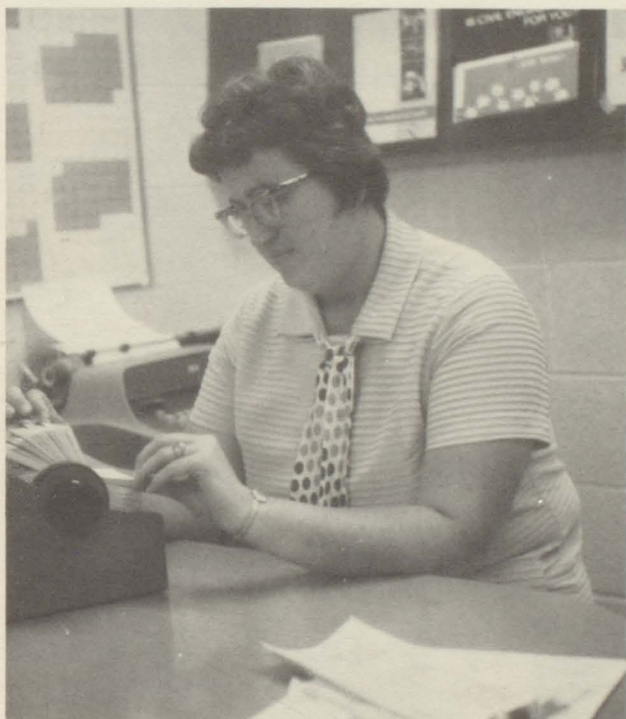

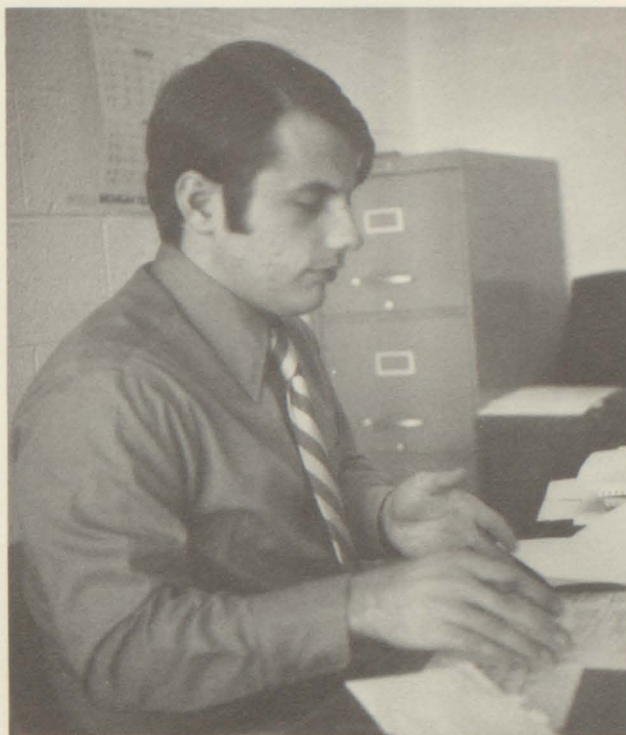

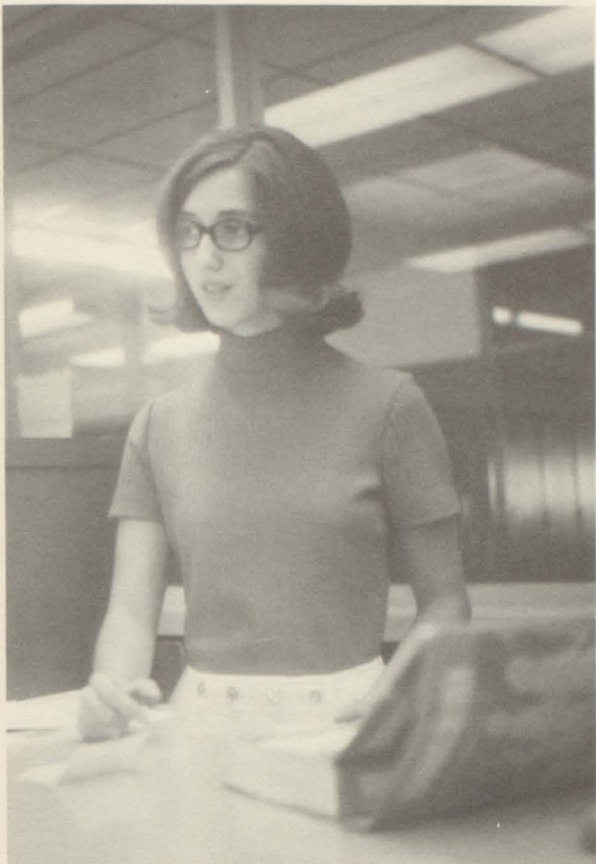

Post-Grad Training

Helpful Friends

Pythagoras to Protons

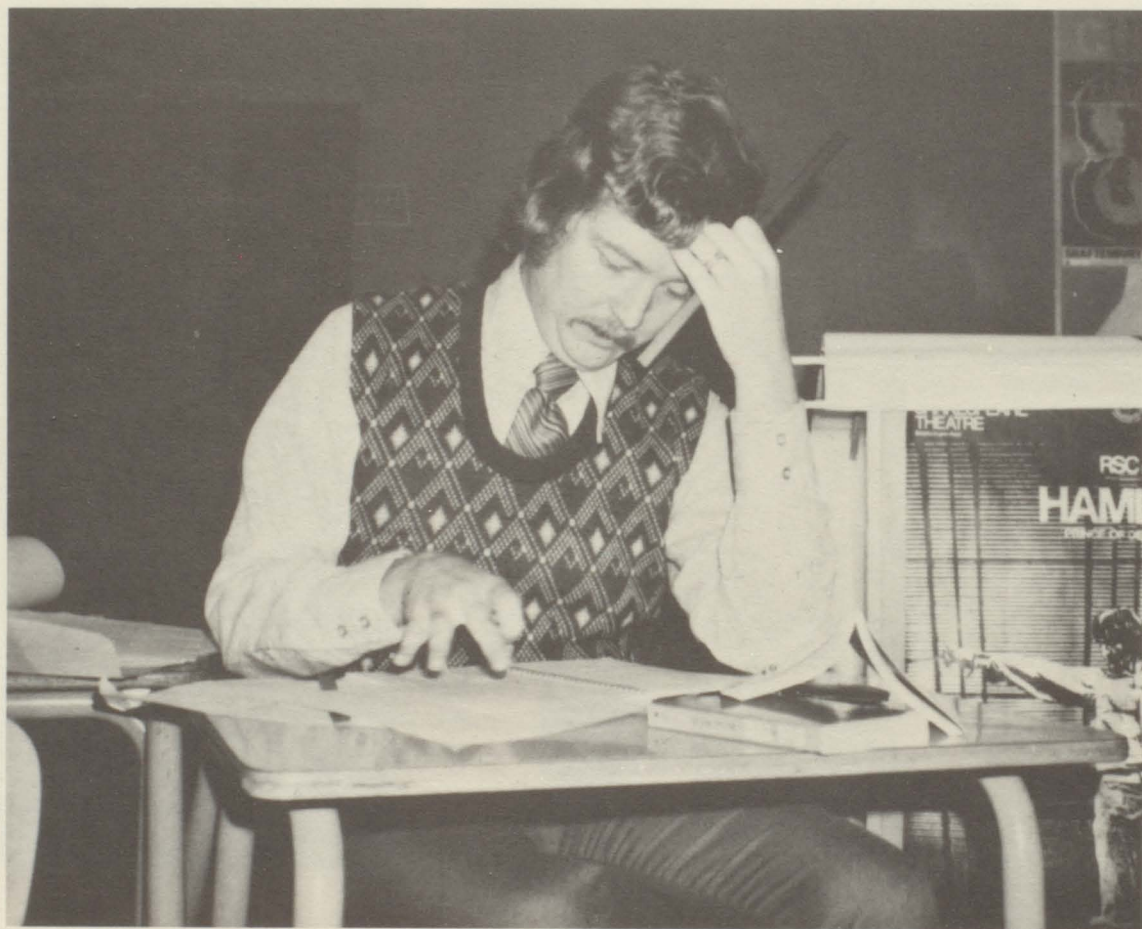

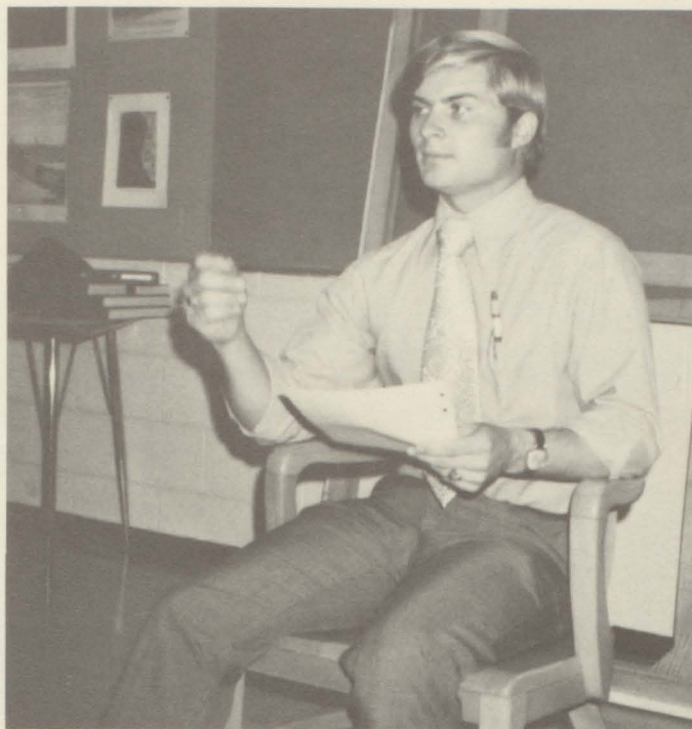

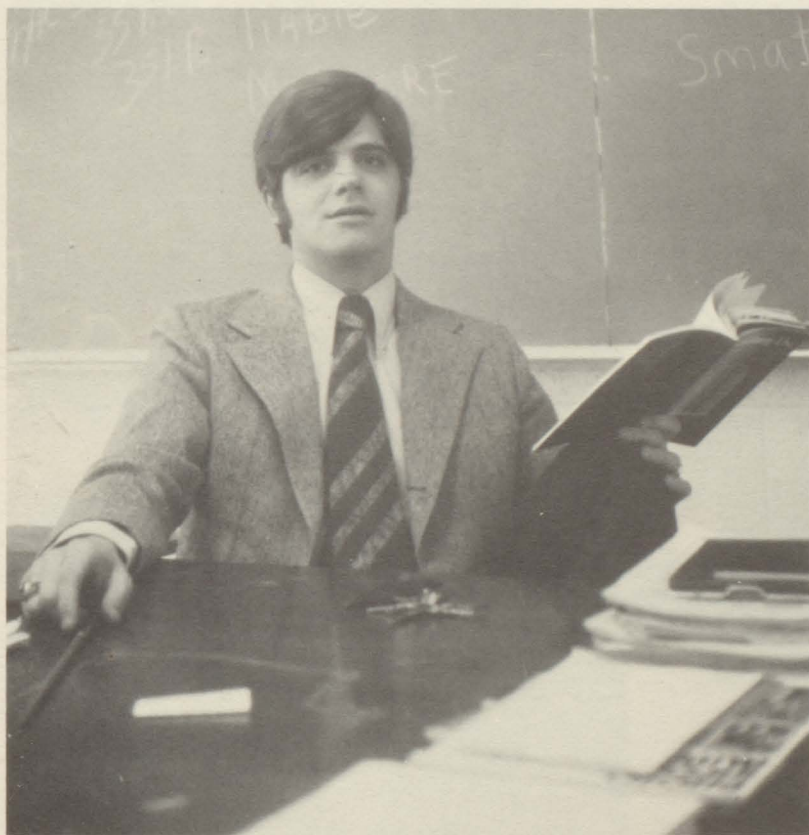

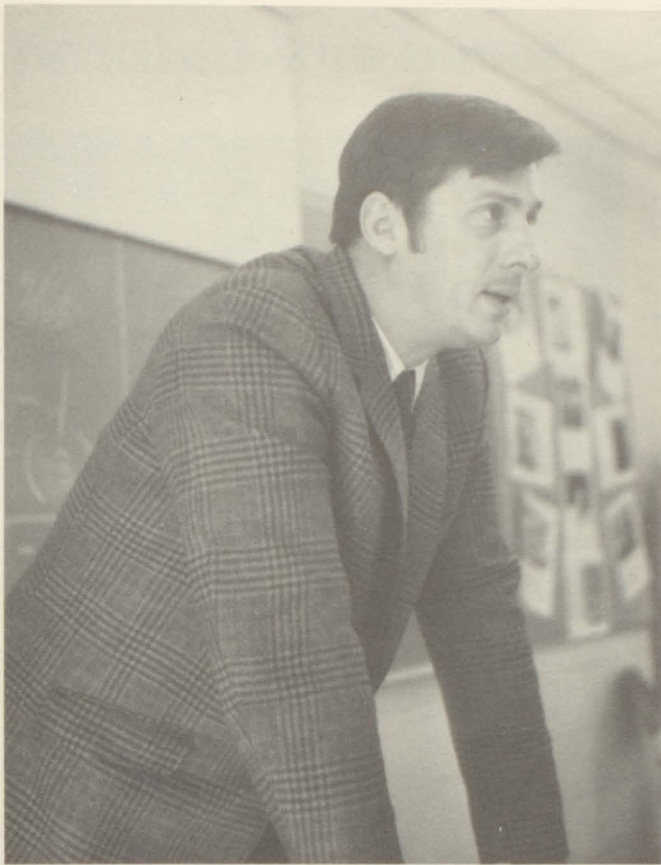

Our Science and Math department has always been a department to be proud of. Mr. George Newcomb (opposite upper left) uses drawings to explain the anatomy of an earthworm to his Biology I students. Mrs. Mary Harris (opposite lower left) and Mr. Wayne Ferriby (opposite lower right) explain to their 9th grade Physical Science students, the difference between the weight and mass of an object.

New Dimensions in English

Mr. Joseph Pavlov is quickly discovering that the jobs of a first year teacher are never finished. Right, Mr. Pavlov is checking through the journals his students compile daily. Mr. Garey Harvey, below, finds that putting on plays such as "Jack and the Giant" isn't always as easy as it looks.

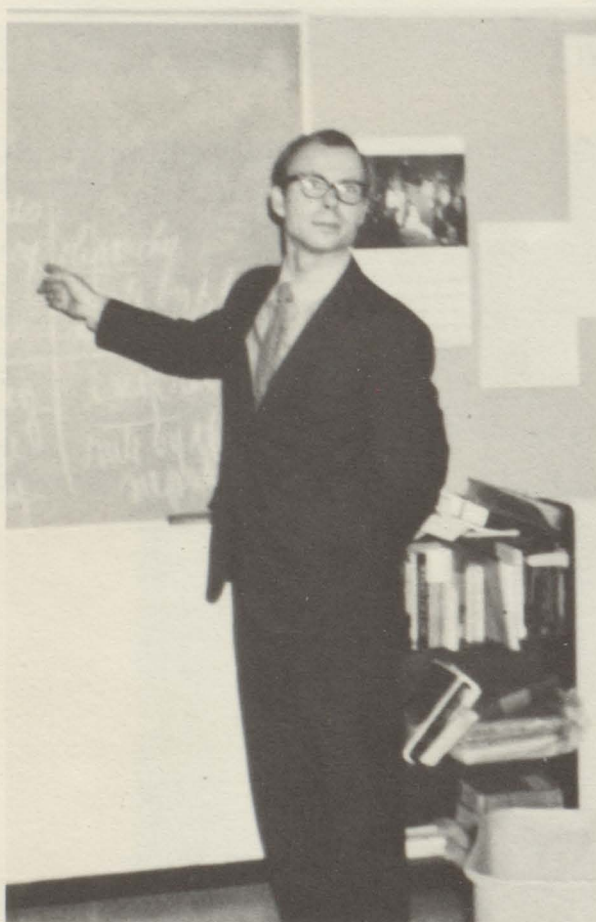

This year a new dimension has been added in the English Department. Juniors and Seniors have the option of choosing from fourteen different classes. Mr. Walker Archer, above left, in his natural habitat, the classroom, is caught explaining an important point in Journalism. Mrs. Grace Zapel, above right, gives her students a look of approval as they complete their daily assignments. Below, Mr. Anthony Cavis is in the process of explaining the theme of a short story to his sixth hour Lit. & Comp. I class.

Social and Cultural

Awareness

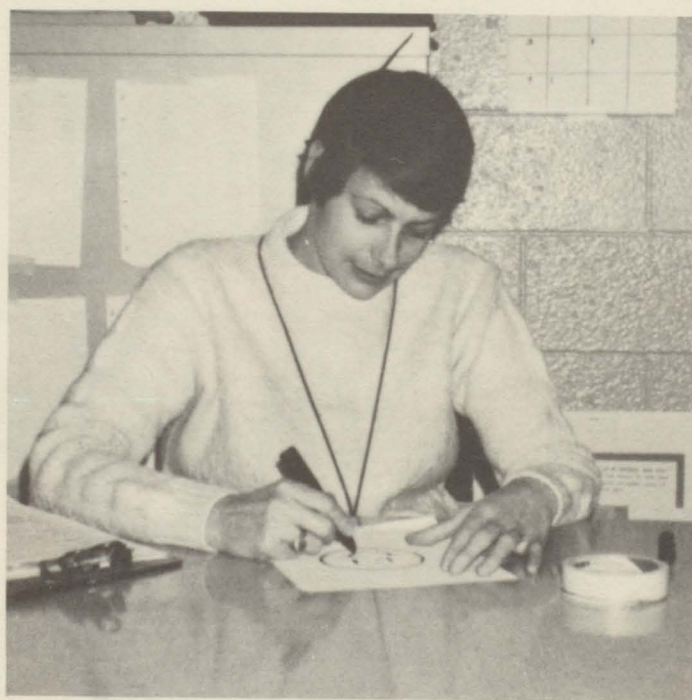

The main goal of the Social Studies Department is to understand ourselves through the study of civilization. Top left, Mr. Goldwin Smith explains to his geography students that there really aren't polar bears in Africa. Mr. Charles Homberg, lower left, is still trying to convince his world history students that Rome was not built in a day. Lower right, Mrs. Julianna Clausen studies her student's intricate art work in sculpture.

Exercise for Body and Mind

Although Gym and Study Hall are completely unrelated, both are necessary to make our school function properly. Mrs. Donna Faucher, upper right, is a new faculty member this year. She has full charge of the study hall which is situated in the cafe. The boy's gym teacher, above, Mr. Stanley Wiinikainen, watches with amusement, while the girls gym teacher Miss Martha Lounsbury, right, sits in her office and concentrates on further athletic programs.

Behind the Scenes

STUDENT LIFE

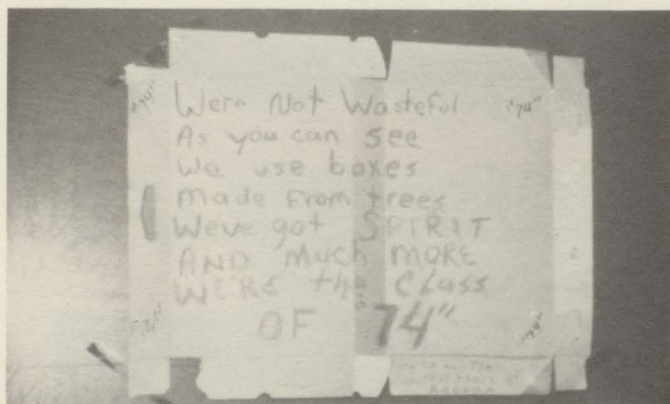

Spirit and excitement ran high at the beginning of Homecoming preparations for the 1971 football season. The week leading up to Homecoming was declared Spirit Week, to bring out the inner Mariner spirit the students had. The different classes competed for the best posters, and all were great.

Old memories came back to the students' parents as they saw their kids leaving for school dressed as they had dressed in their high school days. The girls wore bobby-socks, bright red lipstick, long midi-skirts, and had their hair in pony-tails. (Barb Hupcik, bottom right.) Boys presented themselves as "Greasers", (Pete Schilling, Gary Cain, Top Right), with tight jeans, their Dad's shirts, slicked down hair, and huge wads of gum.

"Clash Day", produced students (and teachers Mr. Pavlov, top left), that wore just what they wanted, crowding the halls with multi-colored, clashing shirts, dresses, slacks, or any crazy combination you could imagine.

Homecoming Sparks New Spirit

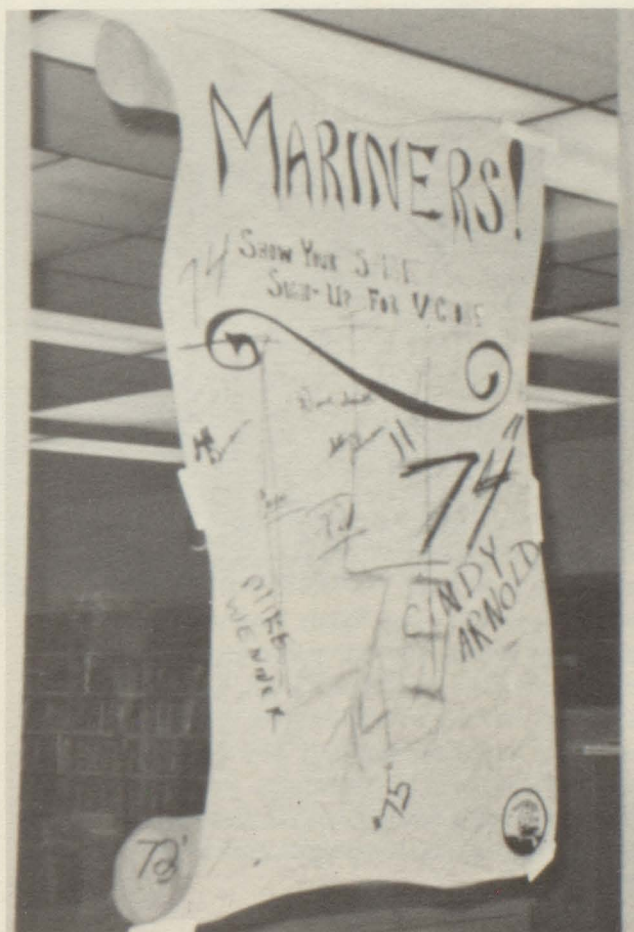

The next eventful day brought about happiness for the girls (and boys too), because the girls were not allowed to talk to any boys without buying a tag from the cheerleaders. While many sales were going on, some of the boys' shirts were fast becoming covered with tags. At the Homecoming Assembly, Mr. Irresistable was revealed. And while Gary Cain (bottom left with Amanda Forsthye and Debbie Hamlin), the winner, was surprised, the girls weren't.

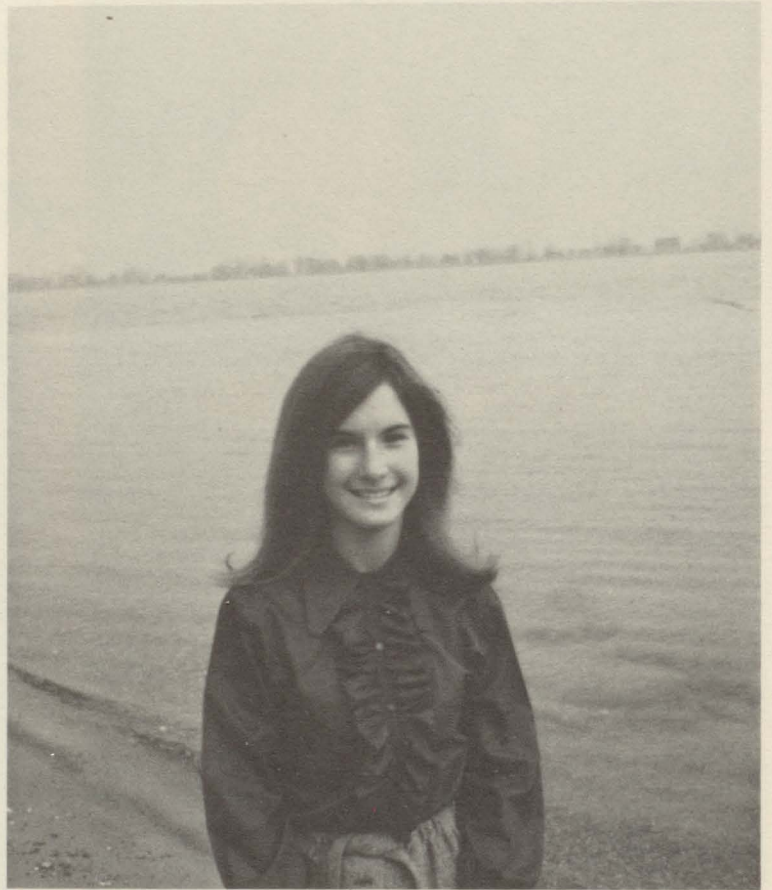

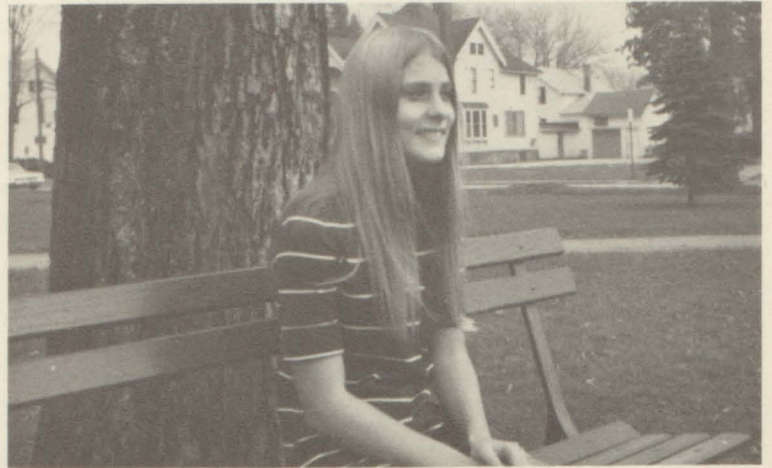

The final day of Spirit Week was a day for only two colors dominating over the rest. Students poured into the classrooms wearing the great Orange and Black Mariner colors.

During the chaos and the fun of Spirit Week, the advisor (or General Manager) of the Homecoming preparations was kept busy, Mr. Pavlov was seen at the rehearsals and decorating, and we all agree that he and the various committees did a terrific job.

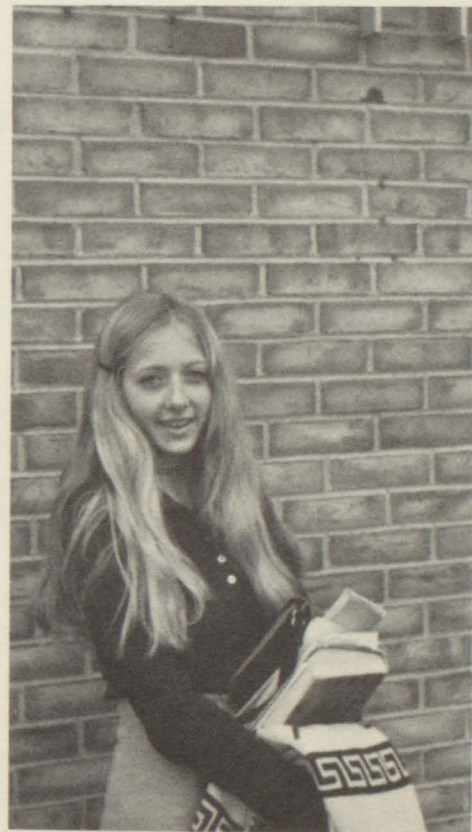

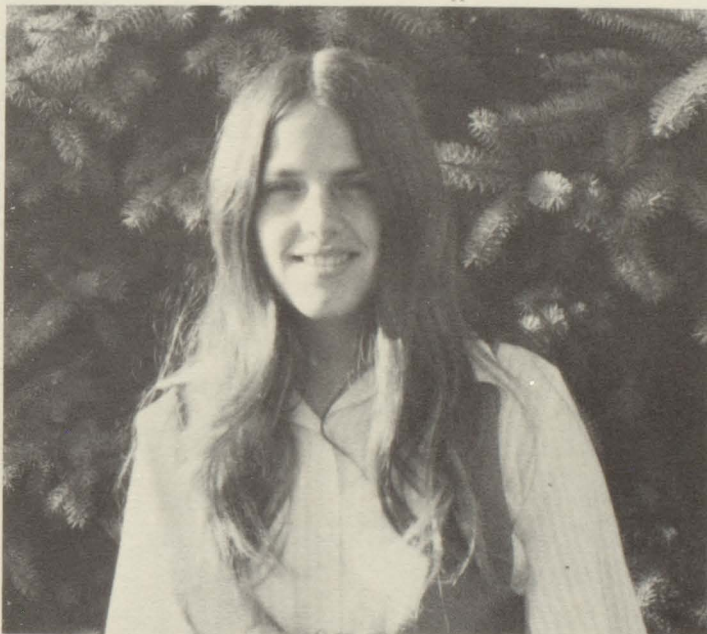

Everyone will remember the great Homecoming Dance, especially Queen Patty (bottom from left with date Dave McKellar). The dance was in her honor, and she showed her gratitude by simply looking beautiful. The dance was a huge success—the band was terrific, and a good crowd showed up, to honor Queen Patty and her court.

And Reigning Over It All . . .

In a pep assembly on Friday, September 24th, the Homecoming queen and court of 1971-1972 were announced. Elected freshmen representative was Sue Arnold, upper left. Escorting her was Jim Perry. Chosen to represent the sophomore class was the bubbly, red-head, Teri Rhodes, above, escorted by Scott Britz. The representatives elected by the junior class were Wendy Finsterwald, right, and Peggy Simons, top left opposite page. Escorts were Steve Winkler and Don Parcell. Representing the senior class were Debbie Lyons, upper right, escorted by Gary Cain, and Mary Ann Ostwald, lower left, escorted by Jim Schulte. Reigning over the Homecoming festivity was the green eyed, blond, Patty Heisler, lower right, escorted by Dave McKellar.

Local Talent Explodes

Students at M.C.H.S. do not excel exclusively in academics but also in music. These talents have been displayed in many ways; most noticeably in the assembly put on by a group of our own guys. Joe De Henau, Jim Totzke, Jed Dornton, Fred Becker, Bill Meldrum, and Chris Cole performed, on stage, for the student body. Their guitar playing and singing brought a great round of applause from the attentive audience.

Student Government Demonstrates Interest And Involvement

Our active Student Government engaged itself in homecoming '72 to the fullest extent this year. They took complete charge of spirit week and all of the homecoming festivities.

This organization also sponsored the refreshment stands during both football and basketball games, not leaving no matter how much they wanted to see the game themselves.

Even though the cooperation of every member of the Student Government is responsible for their milestones, we cannot forget the all of the hard work and constant effort the officers. Serving this year were Chris Cole, president; Jerry Werner, Vice president; Janet Beniot, secretary; Karen Mason, treasurer and Scoot Britz, parliamentarian. Helping them out were Charles Homberg and Joseph Pavlov, the advisors.

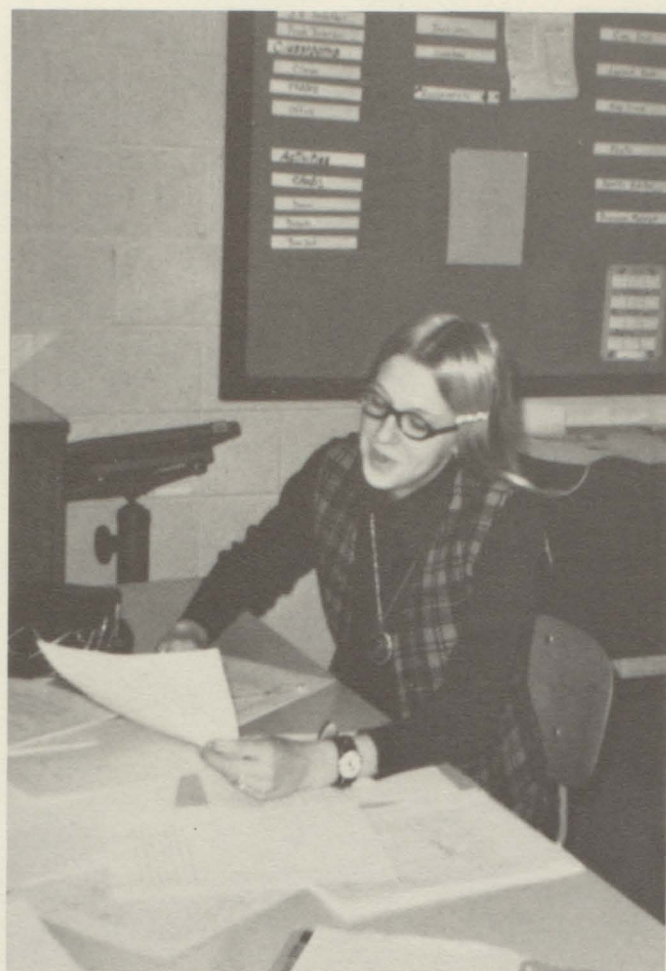

Norman Jones finds, while working at the concession stand during half time, that you barely have time to breath between customers.

They Got the News Out; Sooner or Later

With the goal for a better, bigger and more informative Log, the staff began, eager & ready to work this year under the supervision of the advisor Mr. Walker Archer and Shelly Lozon (left), editor. They strove for more frequent editions with new ideas.

One new idea they tried this year was the printing of the "LOG" by a printing company. Another new idea was that of a "flyer" sent out every other week with the help of the Journalism class. This helped to keep news updated and also allowed for coverage of special events.

Their time and effort was repaid when that "hot off-the-press" issues were the main attractions of the Friday morning classes.

Battling with Words

Action Behind the Scenes

Learnin's Our Thing

A common belief among most students is that the National Honor Society consists of students that are teachers' pets. However this organization is made up of hard working students who have maintained a high grade average. To get in this organization a sophomore must keep a 3.5 average, juniors and seniors a 3.0 average. Each year a formal initiation is held in front of the student body. The new members must stand and take the National Honor Society oath.

Holiday Season Spurs Festivities

The Spanish students at M.C.H.S. not only learn the language but also the customs and traditions of the Spanish speaking people. Each year at Christmas the student take on the exciting task of making pinatas. They show alot of originality and imagination in their pinatas which are all shapes, sizes, and designs (lower right). Alot of work goes into these as shown by the big seven-pointed star made by Krystal Kettel.

Maplehurst Weekend

The Ski Club has changed greatly this year. Marine City and St. Clair merged and created the East China Ski Club. As one club it skied together on alternating Tuesdays and Wednesdays at Black Forest and Circle TNT. The school board also helped by giving the club the use of a school bus to transport the students. Mr. Anthony Cavis and Mr. Goldwin Smith were the advisors again this year, and instead of officers, a Board of Directors consisting of Judy Lewis, Renee DeCou, Ginger Baker, and Karen Mason headed the group.

Not only were lots of new friends made this year, but bits of knowledge and a lot of help was exchanged too. The students played games, held jumping contests, and had races to prove who was best.

The Marine City half of the club also spent a weekend at Maplehurst, a ski resort near Traverse City. Some of the teachers of M.C.H.S. and some brave parents drove the students to their destination on Friday, January 21, and returned Sunday the 23. The weather wasn't the best, but nothing could dampen the spirits of the skiing Mariners.

Highlights Ski Season

Elementary Students Marvel At "Jack and The Giant".

This year Mr. Garey Harvey's drama class performed the play "Jack and the Giant" before captivated elementary students in the district. The play was a great success and a rewarding experience for both the kids and the cast. The members of the cast were: Don Stangel (Jack), Kathy Carleton (Mother), Pet Schilling (Old Man), Mark Schilling and Dave McKellar (cow) and Noreen Allison and Pam Kaminski (clowns). Above, Kathy Carleton and Pete Schilling add a few years to their ages with the magic of make-up. Don Stangel, above right, is seen studying the "History of Giants." After the play the members of the cast, right, are caught reminiscing over the fun they had during the production.

Combined Efforts Prove Successful

Any male athlete who has earned his letter in any sport is eligible to join the Varsity Club. This organization sponsors many fun activities. Each year the members stand on stage and are auctioned off to the student body. They get sold for any amount starting at 25¢. This year's most expensive slave was Mike Hillier who was sold for $34.00.

At left, Ross McLeod and Mr. John Warwick of the Marine City Booster Club work together tending the door at the basketball games and taking admission from Mariner fans like Sue Arnold.

Officers for the 1971-72 school year were: Dave McKellar, president; Bob Klieman, vice president; Don Parcell, secretary; Mike Hillier, treasurer.

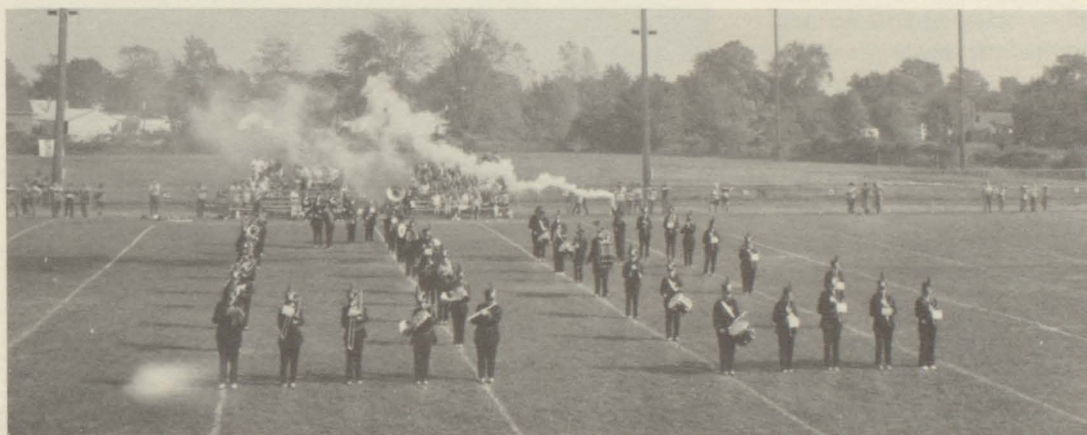

The Many Faces of Music

Under the direction of Miss Jean Bastian, the MCHS band is one of the most active organizations in the school. They play at various festivals and assemblies, and present a Christmas concert, a Spring concert, a Pops concert, and perform at commencement. Much of the spirit present during football season was aroused by the Marching Band with it's formations and music.

Besides participating in the large band group, some students are involved in the Pep and Stage bands, which are extra activities that are offered. The Pep and Stage bands are the ones you hear during assemblies and also at home basketball games.

Harmonic Voices Sing Out

Another branch of the music department at M.C.H.S., is the Chorus. It is under the direction of Miss Jean Bastian. Chorus doesn't involve just singing. It also includes the ability to be able to read and understand musical scores. (right) Many classes hours are spent trying to get this multitude of voices to blend harmoniously. Besides performing in assemblies and spring and winter concerts, they also attended the Blue Water Festival in Canada.

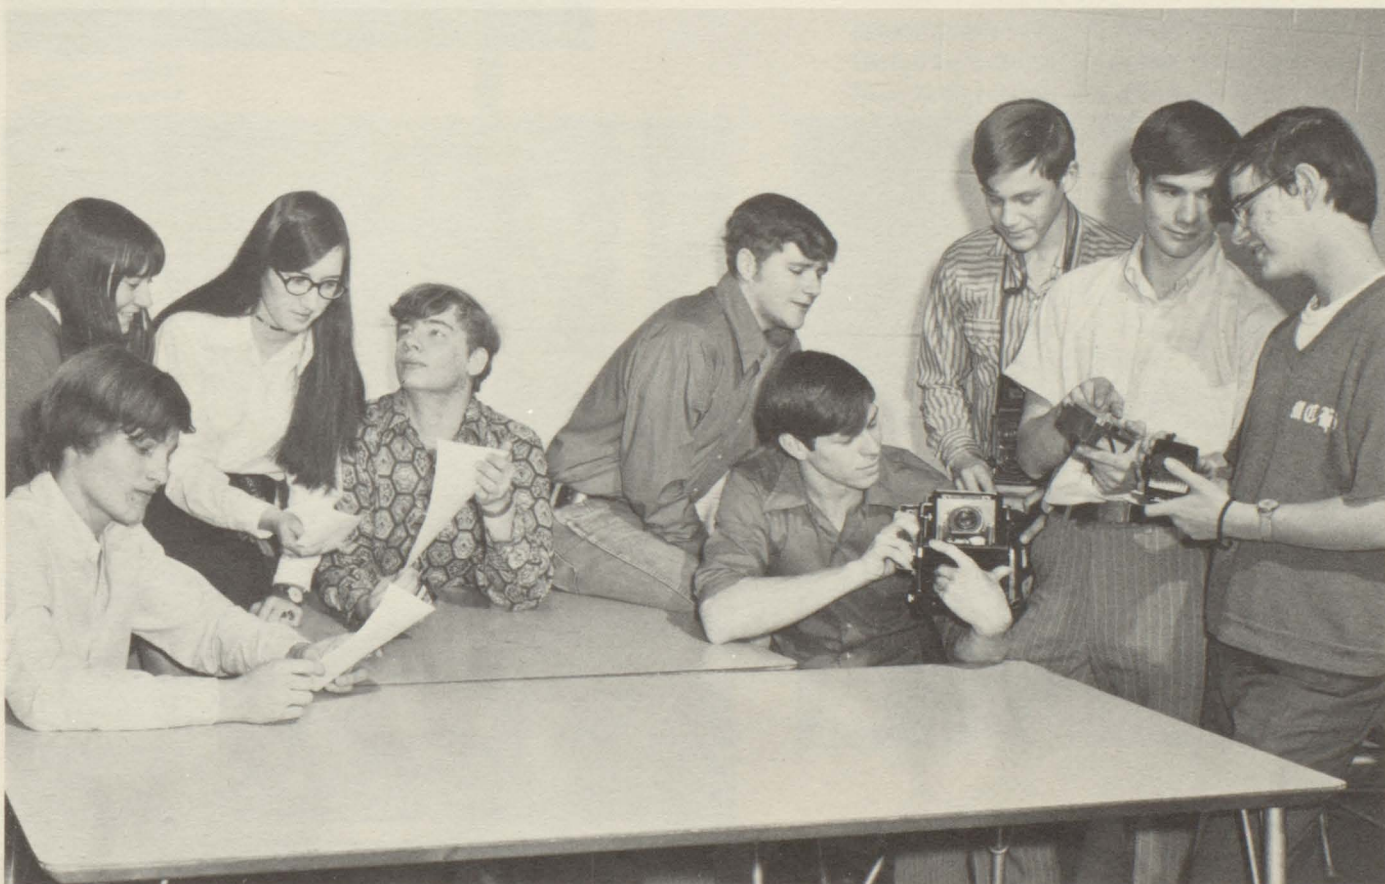

The Photography Club

The members of the Photo Club learn many things about the taking of pictures and different camera techniques. They are taught and teach each other proper loading and unloading of film, darkroom procedures and how to use an assortment of cameras. The club takes pictures at most of the school's activities and some members have become accomplished photographers. Left: Mark Wenning examines some negatives of one of the recent assemblies before final print up.

The Yearbook staff would like to give many thanks to the Photography Club for their help towards pictures in this year's Mariner.

Pride and Hope Fill the U.N. Club

This school year has been a great one for the U.N. Club. Many things have been done and hope for more progress is shown.

During the meantime, in Marine City, the rest of the club members were making improvements at the "A Little Better World" restaurant and teen meeting place. The U.N. Club purchased, bottom right, the old "Wood's" restaurant in November, 1971, and after a couple of months of hard work and determination, the youth center officially opened on January 16, 1972, top right.

Marine City High School and Holy Cross High School celebrated United Nations Day in October with a parade, and speeches and flag presentations followed. Opposit, the United Nations Flag is being presented to representatives from both schools and afterword a luncheon was given. The main speaker was Judge Vincent J. Brennan of the Michigan Court of Appeals. Plaques were presented to Dick Summerville of the Marine City radio station, WSMA, and Bill Bunn of the Independent Press.

On the whole, this school year has been a successful one for the U.N.Club. Their goals and ideals can be summed up in this quote of Mrs. Zapel's, "Let's really make this a little better world, by being a little better people."

This years reigning club officers are: president, Joe DeHenau; vice-president, Bill Meldrum; secretary, Kathleen Carleton; treasurer, Gary Cain; and advisors, Mrs. Grace Zapel and Mr. Joe Pavlov.

"Night of January 16th" Dazzles All

The 1930's was the setting for the all school play on March 20, 1972. The three act play written by Ayn Rand was a comedy drama entitled "Night of January 16th."

The trial of Karen Andre for the murder of Bjorn Faulkner takes place in a New York Court Room. It was unique in that the jury for the murder trial was selected from the paying patrons.

Much time and effort was put in by the cast and crew in producing this play. However it was not always work, they also had recreation such as volleyball, basketball, skating, and swimming. For sure a good time was had by all.

The cast, crew, students and teachers of M.C.H.S. all would like to thank Mr. Pavlov for rejuvenating a school play.

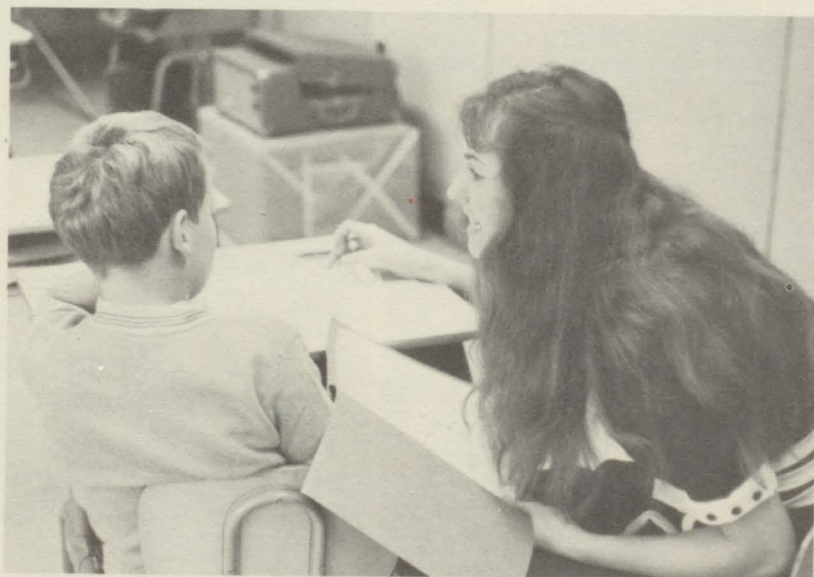

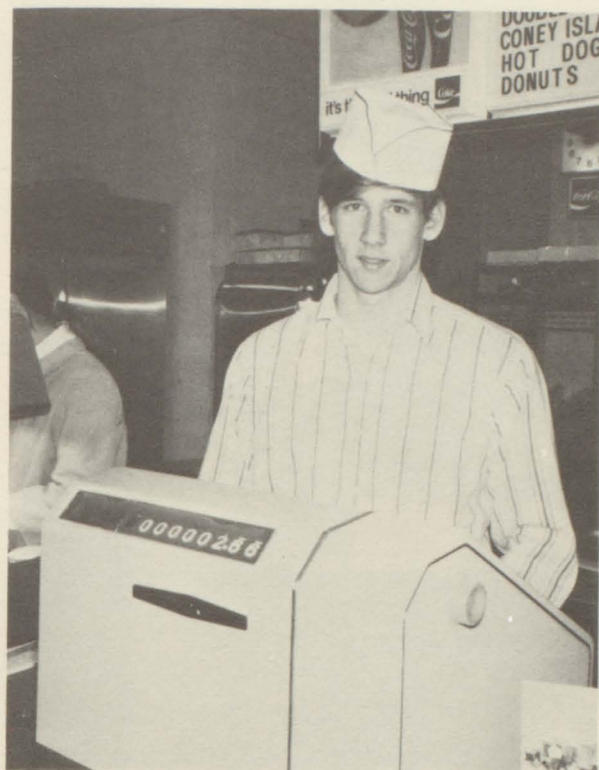

Tutors Find That Sharing Is Learning

The tutoring program this year is new. Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Mason, several Mariners aid her fourth graders in reading. Her students are responding greatly to this individual help, and our students receive not only one-half credit, but also the experience involved in working with children.

Vocational and Co-op Programs Fill Mariners Needs

Many students are taking advantage of the vocational and co-op programs being offered in the area. Co-op students are those who have jobs through the school. Besides receiving a salary they also receive credit. The vocational students are learning skills that they can use for a life-time occupation. These skills include courses in carpentry, landscaping, power mechanics, electronics, drafting, cosmetology, and nurses aids.

When someone says they work on the yearbook staff it doesn't mean that they just take pictures, paste them on a paper, and send them in. Much more is done to make our book turn out. Even though this requires much work, it is enjoyed by all.

Top left, Kerry Carelton finds that the best way to get anything done is to take everything you need and hibernate into a corner. Top right, Luanne Guldenstein, Barb Shelton, and Lorrie Hansen are reminded by Mr. Anthony Cavis that everything must have a two pica margin. Lorel Hauke, bottom left, can tell anyone that it isn't the easiest thing fitting eleven senior pictures and one candid on a page. Judy Lewis, center, finds that her problem is that she has two left pages. Wendy Finsterwald and Cindy Ashbough try their hand at indentifying the people for the student index.

Mariner Staff Breaks Deadline Wire

In only its second year of existence at Marine City High School, coach Jim Olde's cross country team won a league co-championship. They tied Chipewewa Valley for the S.C.A.L. title.

The team consisted mainly of underclassmen. There were only two seniors on the team, so the rest will be returning. The top three runners being only sophomores and the possibility of good upcoming talent the outlook for the future is very good.

The team this year put in a lot of time and hard work and deserve a lot of credit. Congratulations to coach Jim Olde and all the members of the team.

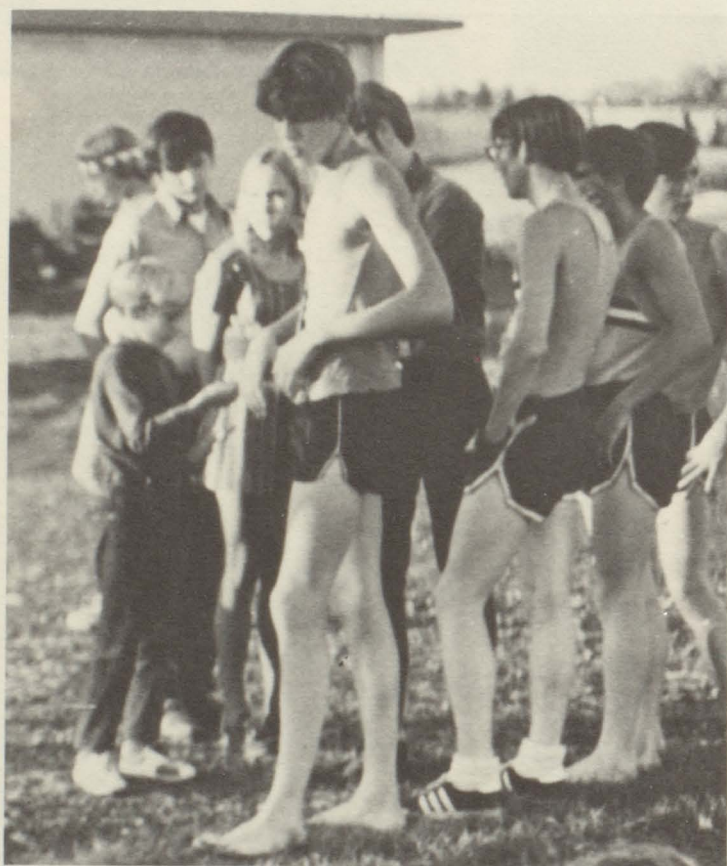

In cross country the team with lower score is the winner.

Above we find the runners after the finish of the race reporting their names to the judges.

Varsity Cagers: Building Block for Future

Despite a losing record, the Varsity squad performed admirably. They played well throughout the season. They played many close games, and some that were closer than the scores indicate. At the season's close, the Mariners entered the district tournament a terrible underdog. Here they took second place, showing their true capabilities.

With the addition of some good Junior Varsity players, the outlook for the future is good. Using Don Parcell, Mark Schilling, and Jim Taylor as a core, the team should place high next year.

J.V. Cagers Show Hope for Seasons to Come

The J.V. basketball team showed that basketball greatness for Marine City is to soon return. In Jeff Bell, and later Jim Bradshaw (coming up from the freshman team) can be found the ingredients for basketball superiority. With the support of Tom Benoit and the other team members, the team showed itself to be of very fine quality.

To the dismay of many opposing coaches the Marine City junior round-ballers put forth many fine performances. With a few breaks having gone the other way, the J. V. squad could have been a top placed team.

Freshmen Show Winning Desire

Coach Jim Olde's freshmen team put forth one of the best efforts given in a year of disappointments. They showed a winning spirit and a desire to win at all times. Their devotion to hard work and their team was admirable.

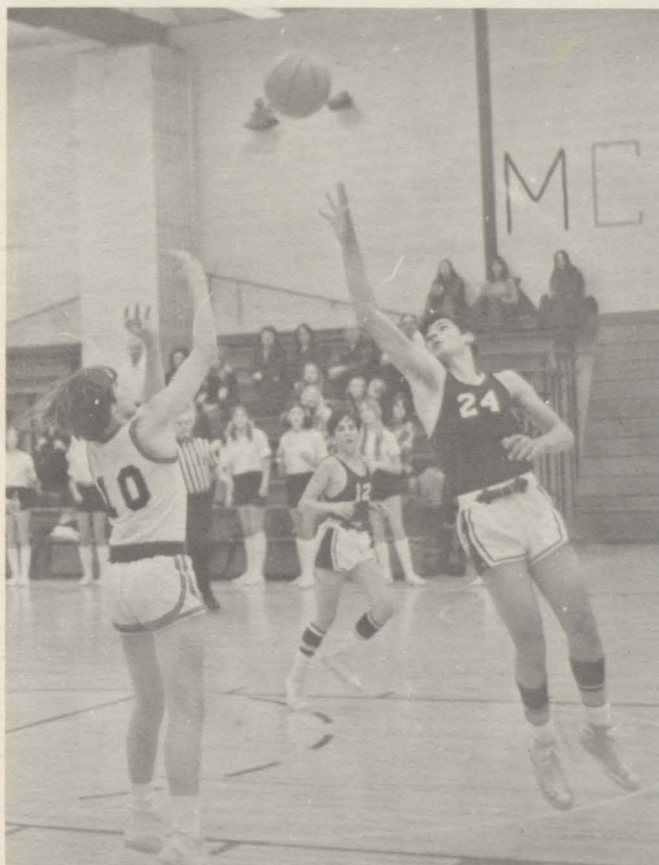

Even in defeat, the freshmen showed that they were not pushovers. Their performance adds to the hopes for the future.

Wrestling, Marine City's newcomer, began to catch on this year. A sport of great physical exertion, wrestling can be a great spectator sport as well.

Mr. Archer has put together a fine group of wrestlers. In two years the team has come to be one of the better teams in our region. Don Markel placed very high in regionals, Chris Cole took third place in the region.

At right, Frank Corbett pins his opponent in a very easy fashion.

Baseball in Full Swing

Baseball, the most popular of the spring sports, is a game that Marine City's Mariners play well. The skill and effort put forth by the team brings to this school a high standard of excellence.

Here an opposing batter (right) watches helplessly as the ball blazes past him into the Mariner's catcher's mit. Below Mike Hillier stretches to the ball for an easy out at first.

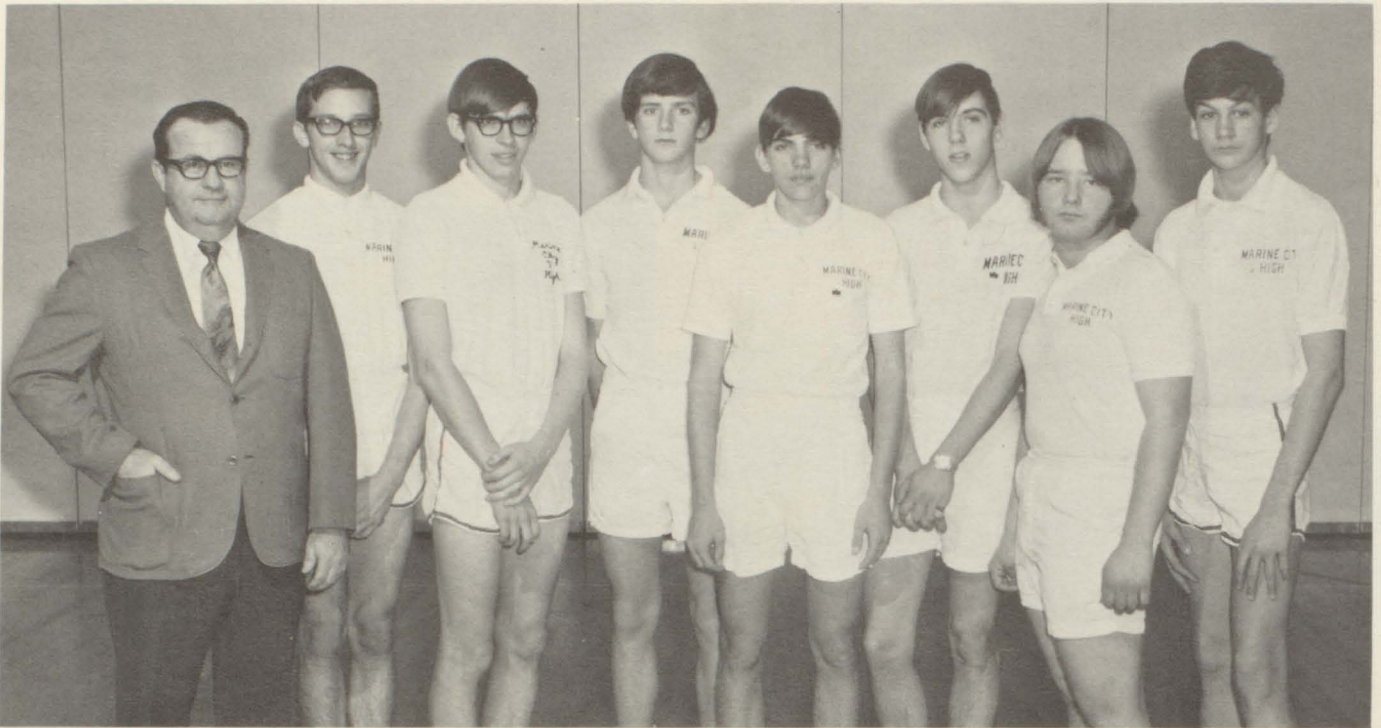

Bob Klieman (above, left) lets his fastball fly towards another strikeout victim. Next to him (directly above) a Mariner first baseman goes high to take the relay from second to complete a double play.

Racketters Swing

Tennis, a game of great skill and stamina has really caught on at M.C.H.S. The school has produced fine teams for years and this year was no exception.

Varsity Gals Make Good Showing

Standing: Joanne Minor, Noreen Allison, Debbie Ledford, Linda Burmann, Laureen Kammer, Lorna Fahs, Debbie VanDeWalker, Kim Griffin.
Seated: Bonnie Ravin, Jill VanSlambrouk, Barb Hupcik, Miss Lownsbury, Patty Heisler, Nancy Lindow, Mary Ann Ostwald.

The Girls Athletic Association provides a way for girls to get involved in athletics. The GAA here at Marine City High School is involved in basketball (both varsity and junior varsity), softball, and soccer at the interscholastic level. Miss Lownsbury is the sponsor of the GAA and coaches as the teams do battle with members of other schools.

The Marine City girls have placed high in all of the sports in which they were involved. They gave MCHS a good name, one which they can be proud of. Their skill and devotion deserves praise. Our congratulations to Miss Lownsbury and all the girls involved.

The Junior Varsity Girls showed that good times for Marine City are here for quite a while. Their performance was just as impressive as the varsity's, so next years' prospects are very good.

Girls Reach High Goals

Cheerleaders Boost Spirit

In a year that saw less than its share of first place finishes the MCHS cheerleaders excelled. They sparked spirit in their cheers and their skits . . . They won cheerleaders' competitions. These girls put in a lot of time and effort so that MCHS would have a voice backing their teams. They deserve our hearty congratulations.

To the class of '72:

"Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

"Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nature strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy."

ADVISOR:

Mr. Anthony Cavis

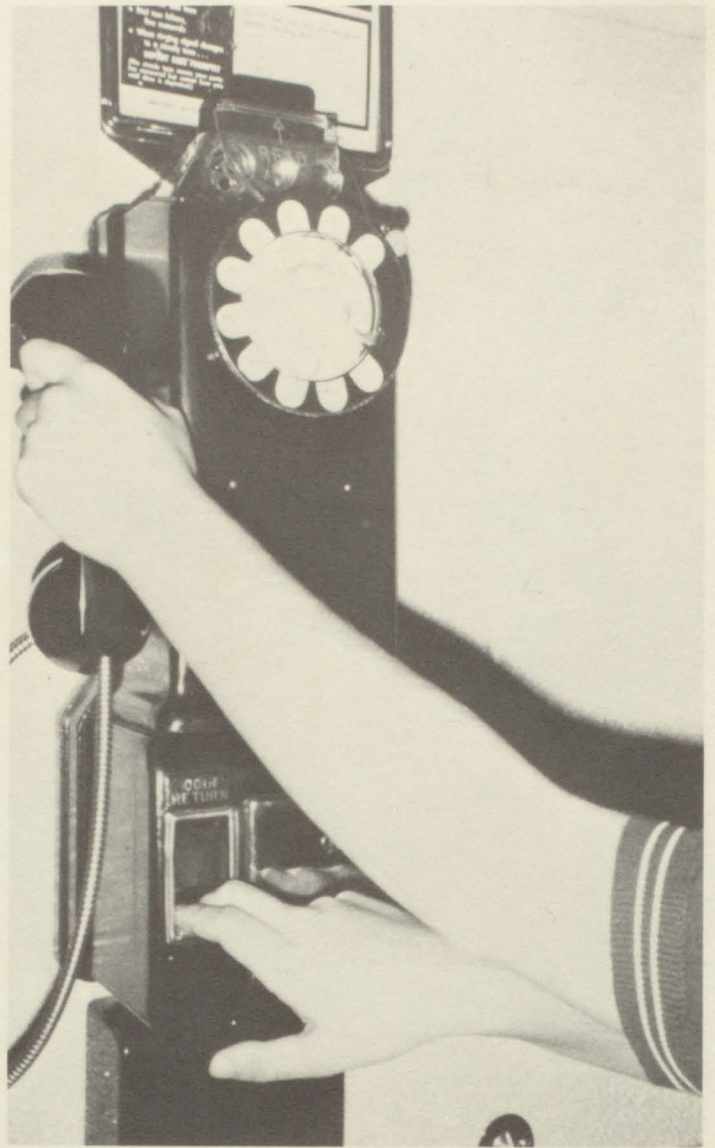

Combining pictures and information of the year's events is harder than most people realize. It takes many hours of work both in and out of school. The book you have just examined represents 1560 hours of hard labor. At this time I would like to thank the following people for their outside help and co-operation: Mr. Charles Homberg, Mr. Don Wiley, Miss Virginia Schoenberg, Mrs. William Blake, Mrs. Keith Malcomb, Mr. Larry Smith, Mrs. Frances Nagornay, the staff of Inter-Colligate Press, Janet Benoit for Cover Design, Mrs. Clausen's Art Class, Mr. Walker Archer, the Photography Club, Asker-Shaine, All-State Photo Co., all our Advertisers and Patrons, Mr. James Steinmetz and the K of C's, the Mariner staff, Mr. Anthony Cavis and the students, faculty and staff of M.C.H.S. for all their time and co-operation.

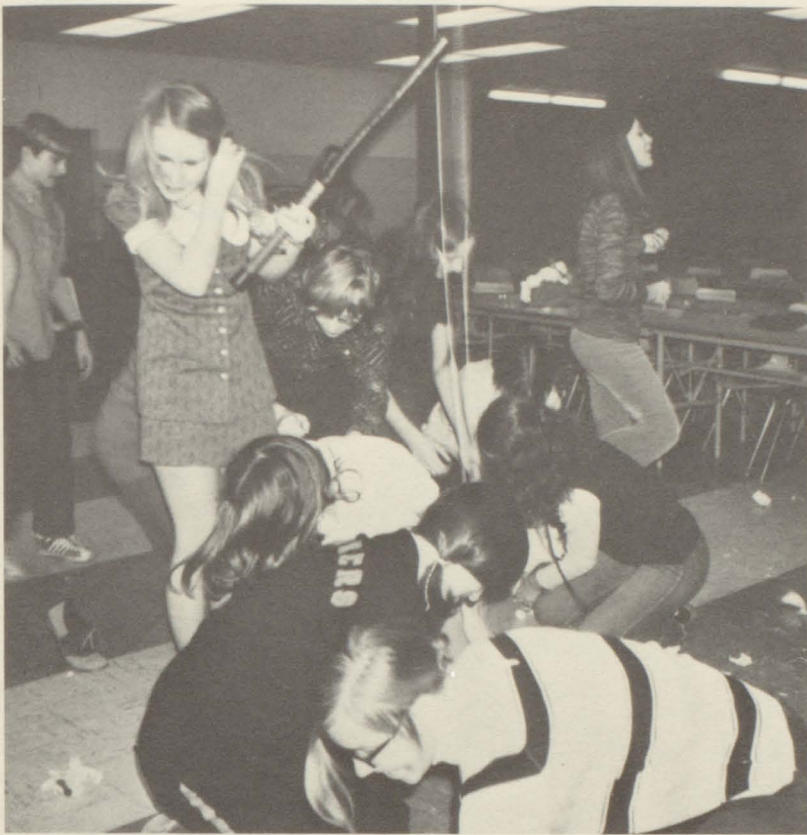

Being an Editor has it's ups and downs. Fortunately the good out-weighs the bad. Even though we had many confusing meetings we managed to get the book finished with some exciting changes. The various changes in the layouts and design should be very evident as you look through the book. It has been a very good year for the staff and we feel that the 1972 Mariner has taken a step forward.
